MINT OFFICIALS GIVE EVIDENCE

Cashier Burns Remembers of No $500 Bills

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.)
SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—The proceedings in the Ford trial this morning were devoid of interest, consisting in the main of the reading in a monotonous manner of the testimony given by Frank A. Leach at the last trial of the defendant, which covered the money which had passed through the United States mint in this city consigned to the United Railroads.
Ruef's Sister on Stand.
Mrs. Henrietta Sittenfeld, a sister of Abraham Ruef, was introduced for the purpose of showing something about an alleged transaction between her brother and Supervisor Rea. She told O'Gara she was ready to answer any question put to her, although at the request of Attorney Murphy, who was temporarily present as representing A. Ruef, the court instructed the lady she was not obliged to answer any questions, disclosing confidences between her as a stenographer and her employer.
No Gain for Prosecution.

ARRESTS TO FOLLOW IN DYNAMITE CASE

Suspected Bomb Maker to Appear Tonight for Identification.

Mose Murphy Declares He Would Know Men Who Asked Him to Take Them Through Powder Works.

Every new development in the Gallagher explosion case confirms the story printed in THE TRIBUNE Sunday morning.
J. W. Macy admits that he ordered the bombs Wilhelm made last February ostensibly for the United Railroads.
He further admits that he was then in the employ of William J. Burns and that he acted under the directions of Burns.
He says the United Railroads had nothing whatever to do with the matter.

THUGS HAVE TO DIE ON GALLOWES

Dabner and Siemsen, Gas-Pipe Fiends, Cannot Escape Death, Says the State Supreme Court.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—The State Supreme Court today confirmed the judgment of the lower tribunal in the case of John Siemsen and Louis Dabner, the gas-pipe thugs who were sentenced to be hanged. Thirty days must pass before the remittitur is handed down, whereupon the two men will be re-sentenced to hang on whatever date the judge fixes.
Siemsen and Dabner committed one of the most atrocious series of murders chronicled in any city. The most vicious of their crimes was the murder of M. Munakata, manager of the Kimmon Ginco, the Japanese bank who was attacked in his office and slain in broad daylight, while one of the attackers was also struck down by the ribbers.

ROOSEVELT HONORS S.F. MAN

He Appoints William R. Wheeler to Be Assistant Secretary of Commerce and Labor.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—President Roosevelt has offered the position of Assistant Secretary of Commerce and Labor to William R. Wheeler, of California.
This position will be made vacant tomorrow, when Lawrence O. Murray will assume his new duties as comptroller of the currency.
Wheeler is now a member of the Immigration Commission, and it is because of his familiarity with the subjects handled by the Assistant Secretary of Commerce and Labor that the latter appointment has been offered him.
Some doubt exists as to whether he will accept the position.
Wheeler, who is now in Washington, has been consulting his wife and friends in California regarding the proper of the office, and expects that he will be able to announce his decision about the middle of this week. Meanwhile he will make a hasty trip to New York.
Previous to his appointment as an immigration commissioner on March 20, 1907, Wheeler was manager of the wholesale hardware firm of Holbrook, Merrill & Stetson of San Francisco.

PLEADS GUILTY

J. Dalzell Brown, Banker, Who Says His Dishonesty Did Him No Good.

REPENTANT, HE ASKS FOR CLEMENCY

Dishonesty in the California Bank Case Was of No Benefit to Him.

Yielded to Temptation in Moment of Weakness---Goes Before Grand Jury Today to Testify.

(Special to the Tribune.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Apr. 27.—J. Dalzell Brown, former manager of the defunct California Safe Deposit and Trust Company, caused a tremendous sensation this morning by pleading guilty to the charge of embezzling $65,000 in bonds belonging to the Sacramento Gas and Electric Company, and after throwing himself upon the mercy of the court, was sentenced to eighteen months in San Quentin, following a plea of clemency made by Assistant District Attorney Cook in his behalf.
After spending almost six months in jail and after interposing every possible legal objection that would prevent or delay his trial, the indicted bank official was this morning brought into court to face his accusers.

FIGHTING BOB'S' HEART DESIRE IS TO JOIN FLEET

Physicians Say He Can Go to Monterey

PASO ROBLES HOT SPRINGS, April 27.—It is announced that if Rear Admiral Evans continues to improve as rapidly as he has been during the past two weeks he will join the fleet at Monterey and be in command when the big fighting ships pass through the Golden Gate.
It is the admiral's dearest wish that he guide the fleet into San Francisco bay and as his condition is so favorable, it has practically been decided that he will join the Connecticut at Monterey. Another excellent night's rest leaves the admiral in a strong, cheerful condition.

Striking Miners Forget Grievances to Save Mine From Flooding

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., April 27.—Under orders from Patrick Gilday, president of district No. 2, several hundred striking miners of the Southfork Coal Company, returned to work today in an effort to save the mines from heavy losses from water and a probable permanent suspension.
When the miners struck the engineers, firemen and pumpmen joined them and the mines rapidly filled with water. To save the property and the positions of the men, something had to be done quickly with the result that the men were ordered to return to work.

METCALF IS FEARED TO LOSE WIFE; KILLS HER ON HIS WAY

WASHINGTON, April 27.—Secretary Metcalf left Washington for San Francisco today to participate in the reception of the men and officers of the Atlantic fleet at that point. He was unaccompanied and is not expected to return to Washington until the latter part of May.

Son Only One of Family in Court

Brown was early in court, accompanied by his attorney, Hiram Johnson. He had the same cheerful expression on his face which has been noticed ever since he was arrested. Back in a secluded corner of the court room stood his son, Thomas Brown, who was the only member of his family present. At the prosecution's table sat Assistant District Attorneys Hanley and Cook, the latter having had entire charge of the investigation into the affairs of the defunct bank.
After the routine cases had been called and Judge Conley reached the name of J. Dalzell Brown, Attorney Hiram Johnson rose to his feet and asked that the defendant be permitted to withdraw his plea of not guilty and to plead guilty instead. Consent having been obtained, the clerk again asked:

Changed His Plea to One of Guilty

"J. Dalzell Brown, what is your plea?"
"Guilty" was the reply in a firm, steady voice.
Johnson then appealed to the court for mercy, after which Assistant District Attorney William Hoff Cook pleaded for leniency for the defendant. He stated that it was his firm belief that Brown was deserving of clemency. He contended that the accused had not profited by the embezzlement of the funds under his care, but rather that others higher up had been benefited thereby. He said he believed Brown had yielded to temptation in a moment of weakness and stated that he was this afternoon going before the grand jury to tell the legal body just what he knew about the affairs of the defunct bank.

Changed Sentence From Folsom to San Quentin

When Cook had resumed his seat the court said that from all he could learn and from the statements made by counsel, Brown was deserving of leniency, and he accordingly pronounced sentence in the following words:
"J. Dalzell Brown, it is the judgment of the law and the sentence of this court that you be confined in the State's prison at Folsom for a period of eighteen months."
"Would you change that to San Quentin?" asked Johnson.
After a moment's hesitation, Judge Conley consented and the prison which is considered by far less rigorous in its treatment of prisoners was substituted for that of Folsom.

Suicide Followed Failure of Bank

Wa, Ha at first denied killing the woman, but later said that she started to cut her own throat and as she was being doing it well he decided to help her out and completed the task.
After killing the woman the murderer tried to batter down the door and escape. Failing in this he returned to his room, waited with apparent unconcern for the opening of the proceedings.

Friendly Greetings.

Attorneys A. A. Moore, Stanley Moore and Lewis S. Byington appeared simultaneously, and a friendly greeting took place between the general and his legal representatives. Attorney Francis Murphy, counsel for Abraham Ruef, who is on trial before Judge Dooling, was present for a few moments after the opening of the proceedings in Judge Lawlor's court and then withdrew to the other side of the hall. None of the magistrates of the graft prosecution came in to hear O'Gara in his conduct of the Ford case.

Reading Leach's Testimony.

The proceedings were opened by a continuation of the reading of the testimony of the then superintendent of the San Francisco Mint, F. A. Leach, given at the second trial of Ford, the reading of which was prevented by the adjournment of the court last Friday evening. The reading of the direct testimony of Leach was not concluded until 11 o'clock. The cross-examination of the ex-superintendent of the mint was read to the jury by Attorney Stanley Moore.

A $400,000 Business.

The cross-examination showed that after the great fire the mint was doing a banking business for the accommodation of business "concerns" which needed money and which could not get it out of the banks of this city, which had not at the time re-opened for business. During the month after the fire the mint, in this manner, did $400,000 worth of business. The money was deposited to the credit of people and concerns here by firms and individuals in other parts of the country. There was no secrecy in the transaction. The telegrams which were received ordering the payment of money to T. L. Ford by Patrick Calhoun, were filed like similar telegrams to other persons in the telegram book. Ford gave receipts for each sum drawn, which, in each instance, amounted to $50,000. The desire to have the money paid in currency was to obviate the difficulty of handling an amount of gold which would weigh 150 pounds.

Orders Came in Fast.

Orders like those issued by Calhoun were coming in at the time so rapidly that the transfers were several days behind. For the first couple of days, Leach says, he attended to the matter himself, but later he was obliged to hire a force of clerks, and at one time the business had grown to such proportions as to require twenty persons to attend to it. O'Gara asked the witness if she had ever given any money to Supervisor Rea.

Objection to Question.

At this point Attorney Murphy rose and said he appeared as counsel for the witness' brother and requested Judge Lawlor to instruct the witness as to her exemption from the necessity of answering questions by reason of her relation as confidential clerk of her brother.

The court read the section of the law, showing among other things that stenographers are not obliged to reveal the confidences of their employers.

A Private Transaction.

Mrs. Sittenfeld said she was ready to answer questions propounded to her in the matter. She said it was not a matter affecting the United Railroads—it was a private transaction.

A. A. Moore objected, stating at the same time that the prosecution was lagging in the man Rea, to whom Jim Gallagher had sworn he had never given any money.

Mrs. Sittenfeld said she had given some money to Rea at her brother's office and that he had left a receipt. She was instructed to bring the receipt and was excused by the court until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Cashier Burns Testifies.

Thomas P. Burns, cashier in the sub-treasury, testified he had paid Ford currency for gold on several occasions. O'Gara wanted to know how many $500 bills there were in the currency. Burns swore he could not tell. He was of the impression, however, that there was not a single bill of that denomination in the currency. One of the amounts of currency turned over to Ford by the witness, contained $100,000 in bills.

O'Gara also sought to ascertain how many $500 bills there were in the last amount and Burns answered that there were none, for the reason that that sum was made up entirely of $100 bills.

Mrs. Henrietta Sittenfeld, a sister of Abraham Ruef, testified she had been connected with her brother's office for ten or twelve years with the exception of a short period after the fire.

While Mrs. Sittenfeld was on the stand, Attorney Francis Murphy of counsel for Ruef, was present in the court as representing the interests of the brother of the witness.

She Did Not Remember.

The latter was shown a deposit check of the United States National bank for $1075, which, she said, she had made out herself, but she could not tell where she had obtained the currency in the deposit amounting to $1000. She could not remember making the deposit.

Bank Cashier a Witness.

Frank N. Staley, cashier of the United States National Bank, identified the deposit check above referred to, but could not tell where she had obtained the currency in the deposit amounting to $1000. She could not remember making the deposit.

But in the former they all agreed that the term "small bills" was meant bills of the denominations $1, $2, $5, $10 and $20. Staley's testimony therefore showed that the prosecution has been on a wrong scent.

The testimony of both Mrs. Sittenfeld and Staley was objected to by the defense as in no way connected with the defendant, involving persons not connected with the case and on a variety of other grounds, but Judge Lawlor overruled the objections.

Just as O'Gara was vainly striving to get Staley to increase the limit of the

Talesmen Subjected to Severe Questioning

(Special to The Tribune.) SAN FRANCISCO, April 27. — District Attorney Langdon appeared again in Judge Dooling's court this morning after an absence of something over a week, which he spent on a honeymoon trip in the southern part of the State. He occupied a chair beside special Prosecutor Heney, but took comparatively no part in the proceedings in the Ruef Parkside trial.

A far larger number of talesmen appeared in court than usually responds to the summoning of a new panel in the graft trials, and after numerous excuses were heard, James E. Lennon, Maurice Klein and Jeremiah McCarthy were called to fill the three vacancies.

McCarthy was excused for an opinion as was also Thomas Carroll for the same reason. Patrick Flynn, the next to be called, was a friend of the defendant, and was challenged for prejudice. James R. Foster was excused for not being on the assessment roll. Henry Dedericks proved satisfactory to Heney and was passed subject to further examination.

Passed on Both Sides. The jury, being then full, the Assistant District Attorney went back to James Lennon, who was finally passed by the prosecution and then taken in hand by Ach, who cross-examined him thoroughly and finally passed him.

When the noon adjournment was taken there remained two talesmen to be further examined and the box now contains in addition nine jurors sworn to try the case, and one subject to peremptory challenge.

ARRESTS TO FOLLOW IN DYNAMITE WIFE'S CONFESSION

OVERCAME CURTIN, CRIES LAWYER

The defense in the trial of Robert E. Curtin, charged with murdering John A. Titus, opened this morning before the jury in Superior Judge Ellsworth's court and after two witnesses had been examined the case was continued until tomorrow morning, as Attorney Lin Church, counsel for Curtin, is indisposed in a trial in Superior Judge Oakden's court, which had a further hearing this afternoon.

The prosecution closed its direct testimony this morning, after Dr. O. D. Hamlin had testified as to the cause of Titus' death. Dr. Hamlin attributed death to the gunshot wounds which Titus received at the hands of Curtin. He described the course that the bullets had taken and their effect.

"Dementia Americana." Attorney Church then made an opening statement for the defense and told the jury what he will try to prove. According to Church's statement the testimony to be offered by the defense will be sensational in the extreme. The defense is ready and anxious to show that Curtin acted under the promptings of the unwritten law, while he was suffering from "dementia Americana."

"We will show that Curtin's wife told him one night that she had gone to San Francisco in company with Titus, that she had gone automobile with him, that she had indulged in intoxicating liquor at his invitation and that she had remained with him over night at a hotel. We will show that Curtin became insane by his wife's confession of shame and that Curtin therefore determined to kill Titus, who had ruined his home by shaming his wife."

Says He Was "Peculiar." "We will show that for many years Curtin acted irrationally and that he was of a peculiar nature. We will show that his wife's confession was a climax in his life and that he became mentally unbalanced and thought only of killing the man who had brought shame upon his wife. In the name of justice we will ask you to acquit this defendant."

Patrick McGee, sergeant of police in San Francisco, was the first witness for the defense. McGee testified to having known Curtin in 1934 and stated that he believed that the defendant was irrationally insane and that he often made peculiar grimaces and talked to himself as he walked along the streets.

Spent Money Freely. "Willhelm spent money freely. I don't know where he obtained the money, but he told me he had mortgaged his furniture and the next morning after we had breakfasted, we went in and bought a new car. I saw him buy a new car and asked Murphy to take us through the powder works, and if he could not get the dynamite any other way he would steal it as he went through. He also said he could get some of the fellows in the powder works to get him a small bottle of nitro-glycerine."

He also said he could get some of the fellows in the powder works to get him a small bottle of nitro-glycerine."

Considered Strong Evidence. Whether the police will ever directly connect Fred Willhelm with the dynamite of the Gallagher home, is a matter of conjecture. They admit, however, that the evidence given by Murphy that Willhelm made an effort to be taken into custody of the fact that he was finally in view of secreting explosives about his person, is of great importance and may prove to be an important link in the chain of facts concerning the sensational case.

Murphy was seen by the police this morning and gave a promise to appear at police headquarters at eight o'clock this evening and have a look at the suspect. He was unable to visit the jail during the day owing to his description of the man in jail is identical with that of the man he knew as Willhelm and will be able, he says, to pick him out of a hundred men. Murphy's statement this morning is a far more important one than the sensational statement made by J. W. Macy, formerly a private detective, to the effect that Willhelm was a bomb maker of no mean ability; that he had demonstrated his knowledge of him and had attempted to get into the powder works at Pinole for the purpose of stealing dynamite. Whether this dynamite was to be stolen to be used in a bomb with which to intimidate Judge Lawlor or was intended for the very purpose which Willhelm is now suspected, Murphy and Macy refuse to say, having no definite knowledge in that direction.

Thinks Willhelms Made Bomb. Captain Petersen feels assured that in Willhelms he has the man who made the bomb with which the home of Gallagher was destroyed and he is now bending all his energies to determine where the bomb was made. Captain Petersen firmly believes that it is only the question of a short time before he will have him behind bars. He refused this morning to make any statement in connection with the case. It is his belief that he expects to obtain a confession from Willhelms which will clear up the entire case.

Willhelms is still in close confinement at the city jail. He is denied to reporters.

Used Assumed Names. "Mose Murphy has a saloon in Oakland at 1911 West Seventh street. Murphy can identify Willhelms as being the man who furnished the bomb that was used to blow up the Schenck home, and is sending his energies to finding out who the bomb was sold. He states that he has been hampered in his efforts to locate the man or men by the premature publication of the arrest of Willhelm. He firmly believes, however, that it is only the question of a short time before he will have them behind the bars."

Sold Dynamite. John Vars said: "Two men came to my office when I was a bookkeeper in the Vigorist dynamite works about the last week in January, as I remember it. The bigger of the two, who I think is Willhelm, from the description I have read in the paper of the man under arrest in Oakland, told me he wanted to buy some dynamite. I asked him where he lived and he said at Emeryville. I said, 'What do you want to do with the dynamite—blow up the ponies?' He said, 'No. He was going to build a house and he had a hard rock foundation that he wanted to blow out.' I then sold him ten pounds of No. 2 dynamite, 100 feet of tss and a box of caps."

"The other man with Willhelm had only one hand and I am satisfied that it was Macy. I have never seen either of the men since, and I am sure that I forgot all about the incident until I read of the arrest of Willhelm. I am perfectly satisfied from reading the newspaper descriptions of the men that Willhelm and Macy are the two men who came to me. It over there tending bar. I talked with him a few minutes and then went over to the truck. After the races were over and did not see Willhelm again."

"The first of January we met on Fillmore street, and we had drinks and cigars together. He mentioned the subject of dynamite and I said I would not have anything to do with the matter. He said he would do it for me. 'You don't know anything about bombs,' he said. 'You never had anything to do with dynamite.'"

"You are a fool if you think I can't make bombs," he told me. 'I have made them before. I can make them easily. I handled them during the car strikes in St. Louis, to blow up rickety cars, after people had quit riding.'"

Discrediting Unions. "These rickety cars, he explained, were used as trailers. He said he used to place bombs under the seat and not let anyone make it appear that the strikers were blowing up the cars. He told me another instance and gave me money when he was talking about the bomb in the cable slot. He said that while doing these things he made it appear that he was looking for a dynamite man to avoid suspicion. The blowing up of the tracks was another effort to make it appear that the union men were responsible for the car strikes."

"Willhelm said he wanted to do some of these things for the United Railroads. He told him he did not have a chance to do it. He came over again and said he thought there was a good chance for us to make fifteen or twenty thousand dollars. I told him I would not have anything to do with it. Shortly afterward I left the employ of the United Railroads. I then went to William J. Burns and told him that Willhelm was a dynamite man. I told him that the United Railroads had nothing to do with Willhelm."

Couldn't Get Dynamite. "Burns told me to see what I could get out of Willhelm—to see what his bombs looked like. So I went to Willhelm and said, 'Let's see what you can do.' He told me that he would not have anything to do with it. He said he could not get any dynamite. He told me he could use nitro-glycerine. He said he knew a fellow named Willhelm who would like to get the powder works at Pinole; that Wallace was a tough character and had made bombs and used them. That Willhelm was a tough character and had made bombs and used them. That Willhelm was a tough character and had made bombs and used them."

Murphy can identify Willhelms as being the man who furnished the bomb that was used to blow up the Schenck home, and is sending his energies to finding out who the bomb was sold. He states that he has been hampered in his efforts to locate the man or men by the premature publication of the arrest of Willhelm. He firmly believes, however, that it is only the question of a short time before he will have them behind the bars."

Sold Dynamite. John Vars said: "Two men came to my office when I was a bookkeeper in the Vigorist dynamite works about the last week in January, as I remember it. The bigger of the two, who I think is Willhelm, from the description I have read in the paper of the man under arrest in Oakland, told me he wanted to buy some dynamite. I asked him where he lived and he said at Emeryville. I said, 'What do you want to do with the dynamite—blow up the ponies?' He said, 'No. He was going to build a house and he had a hard rock foundation that he wanted to blow out.' I then sold him ten pounds of No. 2 dynamite, 100 feet of tss and a box of caps."

HERE I AM AGAIN with your favorite breakfast food

"FORCE"

It was always good enough, but it's better than ever now. Get the "happy habit" by eating the food that's full of sunshine and strength. FORCE has all the muscle-making material in the whole wheat combined with barley-malt—the "pre-digested energy" of the two great life-giving cereals.

"FORCE" is made of the best white wheat, steam-cooked, rolled into thin flakes, combined with the purest barley-malt and baked. Always "crisp" it before serving it by pouring into a pan and warming it in oven. Then serve in large dish with cream, piling the flakes in one side of the dish and pouring the cream in the other side, dipping the flakes as eaten.

Your grocer sells it. No other Flaked Food is "just as good."

BANKER ASKS FOR CLEMENCY

caused an enormous loss to more than twelve thousand depositors, among whom were many comparatively poor people, followed by the remarkable suicide of T. Otway Sadler, manager of the West End branch of the California Safe Deposit and Trust Company, was a great shock to the community and one from which it has not yet recovered.

The court room was packed to the doors with interested spectators when Judge W. M. Conley of Madera ascended the bench at 10:15 o'clock. Judge Conley was appointed to sit in the place of Judge Carroll Cook in department 12 of the Superior Court in the trial of this case before the latter was himself a loser by the bank's failure in the sum of more than $3000.

The incident being closed Attorney William Hoff Cook brought up the case of Walter J. Bartlett, which was also on the calendar and desired an immediate trial. There was some debate between the assistant district attorney and Attorney Oscar Cooke, representing the defendant, and a short continuance was at length granted.

Both Bartlett and Treadwell were in court accompanied by their several attorneys but it was understood their cases were to go over. The surprise occasioned by Brown's pleading guilty, however, and the desire of Cook to try the bank cases while Judge Conley was on the bench led to the discussion.

BUBONIC PLAGUE TERRORIZES VENEZUELA AND CLOSES PORTS

Streets Are Empty; Trains Stopped

CARACAS, April 21 (Tuesday).—Via Port Au Spain, April 21.—As a result of the decree issued by President Castro closing the port of La Guayra, ten miles north of this city, for a period of fifteen days, La Guayra today is completely isolated and business is at a standstill, and the terror of bubonic plague reigns. The train service between La Guayra and Caracas has been discontinued, a military and sanitary cordon surrounds the port, no business is being done, and there is practically nobody on the streets. There are several new cases of bubonic plague reported every day as well as numerous deaths from it. Houses where there have been deaths are being burned. The government has not yet officially acknowledged that this illness is the bubonic plague and it is impossible to get reliable official statistics regarding the cases and fatalities that it is causing. According to information supplied by the consular corps there have been fifty deaths in five weeks. There is a possibility that steamers will stop calling, even at Porto Cabello, and as a result the price of provisions in Caracas is rising rapidly.

STABBED WHEN HE IS HELD UP

Suspect Arrested for Robbing and Wounding Louis Cappello.

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.)

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—Louis Cappello of 53 East street, was treated at the Harbor Hospital last night for a deep wound in the breast caused by being stabbed by a footpad. Cappello claims he was held up at East and Mission streets. Charles E. Latoni was arrested by Detectives Conlan and Mackey at 8 o'clock this morning on suspicion of being concerned in the crime.

SAN FRANCISCO BREVITIES

Sailor Stabs Cook.—Charles Lalung, a sailor, was arrested last night on a charge of assault to murder, the specific complaint being that he knifed L. E. Cappello, a ship's cook.

Injured by Bicycle.—Charles Gay, 1709 K street, who is supposed to be connected with the Southern Pacific, was run over by a bicycle yesterday afternoon and sustained injuries which necessitated his being treated at the park hospital. He was later removed home.

Hit by Bullet.—While wandering over the picnic grounds at El Campo yesterday A. Krause, 38 Bryant terrace, was struck by a spent bullet, fired, it is thought, by some pioneer engaged in target practice. He was taken to the harbor hospital.

Bleeds to Death.—Sam Gliven, a negro porter employed at the Benta apartments, 83 Octavia street, was found dead on the basement stairway of the building yesterday morning, having bled to death.

A LONG LIFE

How to Conserve Energy and Prolong Life.

The time comes to every one when the life forces begin to fail. It is a little harder to climb a hill or walk up stairs. Exercise is taken less vigorously or abandoned, and we feel that the end of active service is drawing near.

It is more than probable that we have been over-driving the machine of the body which will give out like any machine if overtaxed, and we should immediately take steps to change the gear, build up the strength and restore the life forces. To this end nothing equals our delicious cod liver and iron preparations, Vinol which is far superior to all other tonics and cod liver preparations, because it is made by a scientific, extractive, concentrating process from fresh cod livers, combining with potent iron and all the medicinal, healing, body-building elements of cod liver oil, but no oil.

As a body builder and strength creator for old people, delicate children, weak, run-down persons, after sickness, and for chronic coughs, colds, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles, Vinol is unequalled.

DISCUSS SUICIDE; THEN END LIVES

Death of First Woman Followed by Second After Two Months.

OTSEGO, Mich., April 27.—The crowning of Miss Sarah Carter yesterday in the Kalamazoo river has given rise to a considerable comment in connection with the suicide of the two women engaged in an earnest discussion of the question whether suicide was ever justifiable. Miss Carter contending that it was. Miss Dickinson shot herself the following night. Miss Carter, who was 45 years of age, then came to Otsego to live at the home of her brother-in-law, George E. Barton. Saturday night she started a letter to a friend, but left it unfinished, explaining that she was feeling too nervous and would take a short walk before finishing it. Yesterday her dead body was found in a clump of reeds in the river.

Murphy and Pertoll Ready for Battle

Interest is being worked up to a high pitch for the coming fight between Willie Pertoll and Johnny Murphy, which takes place at the West Oakland Club tomorrow night. Pertoll has been training at Alameda with Eddick Lenders and he is in fine shape. "Mollie" McDonald, who is his handler, thinks highly of the little fellow and he is sure that he will be able to beat Murphy in six rounds.

Murphy's friends are just as confident as Pertoll's and there has been a little wagering at even money on the outcome of this fight. Willie O'Neill and Charley Riley won furnish the semi wind up and the pair should put up a red hot go. Both are clever boys and when they hook they should give a very scientific exhibition.

Kid Harrison of Seattle and Nick Harry of Denver will meet in six rounds and as both are slugs this fight should end before the limit is reached. George McGurn will meet Jack McDonald in four rounds. Joe Rogers and Billy McKenle will also go four rounds. Kid West and Jack Lennon will meet in the opener for four rounds.

RESENT THE ATTACK MADE ON SUPERVISOR HORNER

SUPERVISOR C. F. HORNER.

Friends Declare That the County Official Has Full Confidence of His Colleagues.

Supervisor C. F. Horner is suffering from inflammatory rheumatism and is confined to his home at Centerville. He was unable to be present at the meeting of the Board of Supervisors this morning. As a result the M. J. Cavanaugh liquor license at Niles did not come up for decision, but went over for one week.

Testimony Refuted.

It appears that some of the testimony in the Cavanaugh case was so striking that men could hardly believe it. When the defense put in its case testimony was given to the effect that Private Detective Batchelder and his understudy were the only ones who saw certain alleged vile pictures in the machines. No other person ever saw these pictures save two boys who testified that they saw them in the saloon two years before Cavanaugh had a picture machine.

Banker in Case.

Banker Edward Ellsworth of Niles hired the private detective to secure testimony. It is said he had a grievance against Cavanaugh because the saloon-keeper "knocked" the Niles bank.

Supervisor Horner was in no way mixed up in the case. Notwithstanding that efforts have been made to intimidate Mr. Horner he has stood up like a man and declared that he would judge the Cavanaugh case according to the evidence. He has given no intimation, however, as to how he would vote.

Professor Runkel, who is much interested in prosecuting the Cavanaugh case, declares that Supervisor Horner is one of the most upright citizens of Washington Township. "I hold Mr. Horner in high respect," said Mr. Runkel.

They Like Horner.

"I am proud to be a part of Mr. Horner's organization," said Deputy District Attorney Donahue. "I consider him one of the leading citizens of our county. No man can say that C. F. Horner is not an honest, upright man. If he does I will challenge his statement. Fred Horner is loved in his township and district and any attack made on him will fall to the ground."

Soul of Honor.

"Supervisor Horner is the soul of honor," said Colonel Crosby of Washington Township. "His friends resent the unjust attack made on him and will defend him to the limit. He has more real friends than any man in California."

BURY ENGLAND'S PREMIER FROM WESTMINSTER ABBEY

Henry Campbell-Bannerman Is Laid Away

LONDON, April 27.—The funeral service of the Church of England was solemnized in Westminster Abbey at noon today over the body of Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, late Premier of Great Britain, in the presence of a large gathering, representing the political life of England. After the services a short procession moved from the Abbey to Euston station, where a special train took the coffin, some of Sir Henry's relatives, and a few of his closest friends to Scotland. It was a typical gloomy London day and a dismal rain was falling when the cortege made its way through the streets. The Abbey and the railroad station each had its crowd of spectators who found shelter from the weather under a sea of umbrellas.

RAISULI ASSASSINATED IN AMBUSH AFTER FEAST

Famous Bandit Is Dead, Tribes Whisper

TANGIER, April 27.—Reports are in circulation here that Raisuli, the bandit, has been assassinated. The native rumors current here are to the effect that Raisuli was ambushed by a band of Leymes while journeying towards Tazart.

PARIS—A news agency here has what purports to be confirmation of the report of the assassination of Raisuli. According to the report received here, the bandit was ambushed by a number of Leymes tribesmen while returning to his home from a native feast offered in his honor.

BLANK MONEY ORDERS STOLEN FROM STATION

MRS. ISABELLA MARTIN CASE IS CONTINUED

LEAPS INTO THE OCEAN

M. Brosman, Aged Merchant of Eureka Jumps From the City of Topeka and Is Drowned.

M. Brosman, a well-known member of the firm of Flannigan & Brosman, Eureka, committed suicide yesterday about noon by jumping overboard from the steamer City of Topeka, which runs between Eureka and San Francisco. Brosman jumped into the sea.

Brosman, accompanied by his wife, was on his way to San Francisco for medical treatment. While most of the passengers were down at lunch he jumped overboard. Fifteen minutes later Mrs. Brosman came on deck to look for her husband, and failing to find him she immediately raised an alarm.

Hopeless to Search.

As the vessel was at full speed it was hopeless to turn back.

Former Suicidal Attempt.

Brosman attempted to kill himself three years ago by shooting himself in the head. During the last three years he lost a great deal of money and this is the only reason that can be found for his deed. He was about 60 years of age.

POSTPONE ACTION ON ROADHOUSE LIQUOR LICENSE FOR ONE WEEK

Horner's Illness Causes Delay Again

The Board of Supervisors this morning postponed for one week consideration of the application for renewal of a liquor license made by Michael J. Cavanaugh of Niles, on the ground that Supervisor Horner could not be present at the hearing of protestants. Statement by Physician.

Dr. W. A. Clark appeared before the board and stated that Horner has been confined to his bed by a severe attack of rheumatism for the last two days, and that he and Dr. M. Lewis Emerson had ordered Horner to remain at home until sufficiently recovered to allow his resuming active work.

Action on the application for a renewal of a liquor license filed by Owen Paul, 4315 East Fourteenth avenue, was postponed one week, on the ground that the members of the finance committee were not present to consider it.

DEATH CLOSES CAREER OF PROMINENT PIONEER

Celebrated His Golden Wedding Recently

Robert C. Baldwin, pioneer of this State, died at the home of his son, John F. Baldwin, at Osage, near Danville, Contra Costa county, yesterday, a month after celebrating his golden wedding.

When Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at their Danville home their many friends congratulated them upon their long life together and expressed hopes that many happy years were yet before them. Their home in the San Ramon valley has been the center of social activities ever since Baldwin opened his stock ranges there in 1852.

Was Miner in 1850.

Baldwin was over 80 years of age. He was born in Summit county, Ohio, and came to this State when a young man. In 1850 he arrived at Placerville, then called Hangtown, and began mining. The following spring he moved to the north fork of the Feather river, and a year later settled at Danville, where he proved himself a successful farmer and stock ranger. A comfortable fortune, accumulated in the following six years.

Tyrol, $24; Mrs. J. W. Willis, $105; public collection, $28.33; total, $358.33. Four weeks have been given to collect the needed $1000. The pastor thanks all who helped.

Children Scattered. His children are now widely scattered. They are Dr. R. O. Baldwin of Oakland, Mrs. M. B. Gilbert of San Francisco, Elmer J. Baldwin of Westley, Cal., Mrs. George L. Everett of Berkeley and John F. Baldwin of Osage.

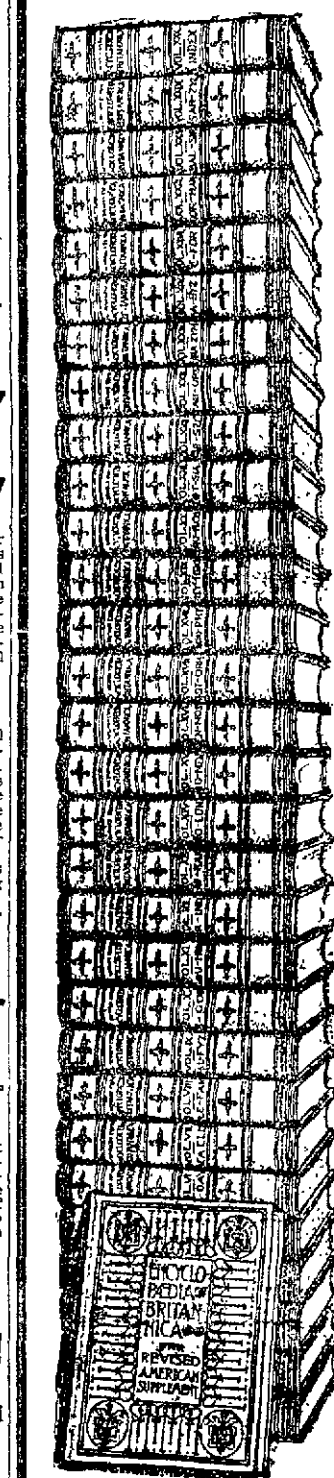

The grandchildren are Mrs. J. J. Mazza (nee Hook) of San Francisco, Dr. J. Hook of San Francisco, Miss Winella Baldwin of Westley, Linus S. Everett of Berkeley and Helen Baldwin of Westley.

The funeral will be held from his late home and from the Presbyterian Church of Danville tomorrow at 1:30 p. m. The pallbearers are to be selected from among the members of the church, of which he was a member, and from the Danville Grange.

RICHARD CROKER HOPES TO WIN LOT MORE PURSES

DUBLIN, April 11.—Richard Croker has strong hopes of adding this year the "One Thousand Guineas" at Newmarket and "The Oaks" at Epsom to the "Two Thousand" of the turf. Croker has authorized a contradiction of the stories circulating through the sporting press that his most promising string had wintered badly and that the prospects of his night when Tommy Burns so easily whipped the Irishman, Croker said nothing of the kind had occurred. He said that he had never met Roche in his life and Roche had never seen him unless he was able to see through the glare of the lights when he was tempted to drink with his friends during the fight with Hurt Hughes.

was gloomy. The mare Rhodora, which was said to advantage as a two-year-old, was expected to make the winter in good shape and barring accident, Croker thinks he will be classic.

Secures Lyne.

His first-class caecers, all the progeny of the same famous mare, Rhoda B. will form a unique event for the turf of this country.

Croker has secured first claim on

Croker declined to discuss presidential possibilities in the United States except in the case of Hughes, whose endorsement by the New York State Convention he said he considered "a compliment from his own State."

"Hughes' action in reference to the gambling bill should injure his prospects as a politician," he said. "Why should a man who has done such a thing for himself, do it for others? It is not all life a gamble?"

What America Needs.

"Are not Hughes politics a gamble? But they select the part of the gamble that's pleasant and gives pleasure, and propose to peralyze."

"What America needs," said Croker in conclusion, "is a quiet President. The country wants a rest for a long time, and some statesman like William McKieky."

FLOOD, ICE AND SNOW IN EAST

Storm Rages in Middle West—
Frost Kills Fruit in Denver and River Endangers
Georgia Towns.

While the Middle West and South are suffering from snow, wind and flood, Oakland and vicinity are enjoying peek-a-boo winter weather. At 11 a. m. the thermometer registered 63 degrees F.

ST. PAUL, April 27.—A northwest gale which blew from thirty-two to thirty-five miles an hour all night brought with it a snowstorm which covered everything with sticky snow. Street car service was delayed and much inconvenience caused. The snow in town melted nearly as fast as it fell, but in the outlying districts the ground was several inches deep with snow.

Superior, Wisconsin, today is experiencing one of the heaviest snowstorms of the season.

Snow at Sedalia.

SEDALIA, Mo.—There was a light fall of snow here and in this part of Central Missouri early today.

Frost Damages Fruit.

DENVER.—The damage by frost the past two nights to the orchards in the Arkansas and Grand valleys and other fruit-growing regions of Colorado is estimated at $1,000,000. The cold was combined with a strong wind and it is believed that the loss, though heavy, is less than that caused by the April frosts last year.

Temperature at 29.

OMAHA, Neb.—The minimum temperature in Nebraska dropped to 29 last night, accompanied in some parts of the state by a killing frost. Intermittent snow fell throughout the northern part of the state and continues today. Anxiety is felt for fruit and young vegetables.

Flood Enters City.

ATLANTA, Ga.—Devastation by wind was followed today by serious flood conditions in parts of Georgia. Columbus, Ga., on the Alabama line, is the chief sufferer, according to the early reports. The Chattahoochee river, which is rising a foot an hour, the power house supplying the city with light is partly submerged, factories near the river have been forced to suspend operations and the street cars have been stopped.

Two steamboats were torn from their moorings today and have gone down the river.

Ice Formed in Night.

SIoux CITY, Iowa.—Snow fell in this section today. Thin ice formed last night.

Below Freezing.

DES MOINES, Iowa.—In the northern part of Iowa, the temperature fell below freezing early today. In Des Moines a few flakes of snow fell this morning.

Heavy Wind Storm.

MAINE, Wis.—Early today a storm of almost hurricane velocity from the northeast swept over this part of the country, doing damage to shipping and other property. Near Cedar river a schooner is reported ashore.

Captain Conboy Falls on Peel.

Jovial Michael Joseph Sprains Ankle and Cuts Eye in Accident.

(Special to The Tribune.)
SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—Happy, jovial, lighthearted Captain Conboy, chief of the harbor police district, who has scarcely been ill a day in his life, is confined to his bed at his home, 621 Hayes street, as the result of an accident which befell him as he entered his home last night. A piece of orange peel was responsible for the captain's downfall and great indeed was that fall. Conboy received a sprained ankle and several lacerations over the left eye and an abrasion of the forehead.

Dr. W. T. Burnham of 1136 McAllister street was called in and the captain was sent off to bed.

FATAL INJURY IN FALL FROM FLOAT INTO BAY

Grabs Stanchion, Which Gives Way, Falling on Head.

(Special to The Tribune.)
SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—E. R. Johnson, a ship carpenter, who lives at Sixth avenue and J street, was fatally injured at 10 o'clock this morning by being struck with a 200 pound stanchion while at work on a float and tumbled into the bay from where he was rescued with extreme difficulty by fellow workmen.

Johnson was making some repairs on the Sacramento river steamer, Pride of the River, the float that he was using sank and he grabbed hold of the stanchion, which in turn giving away, fell upon him with great force, rendering him unconscious. After he had been saved from drowning he was taken to the Potrero Emergency Hospital, where it was found that he had a possible fracture of the skull and internal injuries, he was suffering from concussion of the brain.

GOOD PROGRAM ATTRACTS CRUSH

VIRGINIA CAMERON, WHO RETURNS TO ORPHEUM.

Virginia Cameron Gets Hearty Welcome on Return to Vaudeville.

Fully 1500 people were turned away from the Oakland Orpheum last night when the new bill went on, the crush at the doors being reminiscent of the excitement that attended the opening of the theater last September.

The program was singularly attractive throughout and the crowd was delighted with the vaudeville. The opening number was a snappy affair and the closing feature, the Empire City Quartet, was one of the best ever put on the Orpheum stage.

Frost was mingled with music and dancing in the novelty act of the three Leightons, who call their sketch "A One Night Stand in Minstrelsy." The dancing of one member of the trio was exceptionally clever and graceful.

Give Odd Performance.

Some odd messenger boy stunts and some good piano playing were included in the act of Orph and Fern. Their sketch was entitled "Sign that Book" and included a travesty on the traditional messenger boy.

Virginia Pierce, the Berkeley society girl who sings under the stage name of Virginia Cameron, returned for a week's engagement, and was given a very hearty welcome. She is a sweet singer and makes a very pretty picture on the stage. Her girlishness and excellent voice combine to render her act a noteworthy addition to vaudeville entertainment.

Stella Mayhew had some new bits of witty and amusing stuff to go with her character songs and again was assisted in splendid style by Billie Taylor.

Eldridge, the black face fun maker, had a lot of new quips and stories and songs to offer.

The Carberry Brothers danced in clever style. May Bailey gave her musical monologue in pleasing fashion, some new motion pictures were shown, and the Orpheum orchestra as usual rendered some very pleasing music.

Burns, Bombs and Explosions.

This morning the Spreckels organ repudiates J. W. Macy, the Burns agent who negotiated with Fred E. Wilhelms last January and February for the manufacture of certain bombs ostensibly to be used in blowing up Spreckels, Heney and Judge Lawlor. It does not and cannot deny that Macy was in the employ of William J. Burns at the time the manufacture of the bombs was negotiated, and that he has been continuously in the employ of Burns ever since.

Without mentioning Macy's name, the Call on Sunday morning said, "Wilhelms was first brought to the attention of Detective Burns by a former employee of the United Railroads, who informed the graft prosecution that Wilhelms contemplated murdering Francis J. Heney, Rudolph Spreckels and Judge Lawlor. According to this informant, Wilhelms is an expert in the preparing and handling of explosives for purposes like that behind the Gallagher dynamiting and has turned tricks something like it elsewhere."

And what did the astute Burns do? Did he inform the Alameda county authorities and the San Francisco police? He began putting up a job on the United Railroads to be sprung at an opportune moment. Again we quote the veracious Call.

"Keep in touch with him," said Burns, "and let him believe that you are still employed by the United Railroads."

"The man did as he was ordered and reported to Detective Burns that Wilhelms was anxious to demonstrate his skill in the matter of explosives."

"Make him show you how some of his bombs work," advised Burns.

"According to Heney and Burns, Wilhelms prepared one of his infernal machines and exploded it against a hillside in Berkeley by way of demonstration, tearing a great hole in the earth. Confident that they had to deal with a man that would stop at nothing, Burns told his agent to bring Wilhelms to San Francisco, giving him to understand that representatives of the United Railroads desired him to make a demonstration here."

This is the version, it must be kept in mind, that the Burns outfit would like the public to accept after the plot had failed and the hand Burns had in it exposed. But with the best face they can put on the matter, the Burns crowd are compelled to admit that the bombs were made at the instigation of Burns, and taken to San Francisco under the false representation that "the United Railroads desired Wilhelms to make a demonstration here" (in San Francisco).

It was one of Burns' tricks to "pour the poison in." It was a bit of scoundrelism such as Lincoln Steffens glorified in his article on "Burns the Intriguer."

After Burns had got his plot perfected, he prepared to explode it against the United Railroads. A tip was given to Chief Biggy through the San Francisco District Attorney's office (Heney probably gave it or had it given), and two police detectives arrested Wilhelms the moment he landed in San Francisco off the Oakland ferryboat. The supposed bombs were found to contain nothing more dangerous than soap and sawdust, and Burns was compelled to keep the matter quiet for fear of ridicule and the consequences the exposure would bring on himself.

Now that the bomb fake of last February has been exposed, the Spreckels organ finds it convenient to repudiate Macy the day after it had acknowledged that the bombs were ordered by Burns and brought to San Francisco by his direction. During the whole transaction Burns had hidden himself under the cloak of the United Railroads, cloaked his villainy under the mantle of the men he was plotting to destroy.

Dates are important in inquiring into this affair. Macy began his negotiations with Wilhelms immediately after the Appellate Court's decision in the Schmitz case was rendered and about the time Spreckels and Heney annulled Abe Ruef's immunity contract. The papers were full of the revelations made by Rabbis Kaplan and Nieto regarding the infamous immunity deal and the midnight conference with Judges Lawlor and Dunne. Public indignation was running hot and strong against the private prosecution, which had announced that Tires L. Ford and Ruef were to be tried immediately and simultaneously.

It was time for Burns to do something to save his face and prevent the utter collapse of the Spreckels prosecution. The record of the last sixteen months tells how he tunc and again sprang canards and fake plots to kidnap and murder at critical periods of the several trials. He kept "pouring the poison in," as he boasted to Lincoln Steffens.

Well, Ruef's contract was annulled on the 16th day of January and his case immediately called for trial before Judge Dunne, who decamped from the State and left Judge Dooling to act as his deputy. Ford was hurried to trial for the third time before Judge Lawlor.

Burns, Heney and the Spreckels organs began to hint darkly of plot to assassinate judges and witnesses. A sudden terror of bodily harm was manifested in the ranks of the prosecution. Having filled the air with expectancy or something terrible, the prosecution began to dilly-dally with the proceedings.

On the 22d of February, Washington's birthday—significant anniversary—Wilhelms brought to San Francisco the bombs he had manufactured for the United Railroads per order given by the agent of William J. Burns. The five missiles turned out to be as harmless as spitballs, and the plot so carefully planned against the "higher-ups" failed to explode.

Everywhere in this business the hand of Burns has been the moving spring. The bombs, the first arrest and likewise the second were inspired from his office. This naturally prompts one to inquire if a new plot still more diabolical has been planned on the miscarriage of the first, if there is any connection between the Gallagher explosion and the fake demonstration plotted two months ago. Is this another case of "pouring the poison in?"

MANIAC TRIES TO KILL MAN

Insane Patient Attacks Hospital Steward When Detected in Attempt to Commit Suicide in Detention Ward.

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE) SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—Awakened from his sleep at 5 o'clock this morning by the noise made by Charles A. Bailey, a patient at the detention hospital, Stewart William Emerson was this morning almost choked to death by the man whom he caught trying to hang himself to the window of his cell with a sheet.

Suicide Prevented. Emerson, as soon as he had located the disturbance which had aroused him, opened the door of Bailey's cell to find him endeavoring to hang himself with a knotted sheet. Believing that his man could be easily subdued, the steward advanced and grappled with him, whereupon the man, enraged and desperate, jumped upon him and clutched at his throat with his fingers choking him almost into insensibility.

Maniac Subdued. With rare presence of mind, however, Emerson gripped the man and called loudly for help. Steward McCarte responded and with great difficulty the maniac was subdued and placed in a straightjacket.

CHARTERS DISCUSSED BY SUFFRAGE LEAGUE

New Form of Government for City Is Urged.

The Suffrage Amendment League had a very successful meeting Friday evening.

The membership committee reported 75 new members enrolled since the last monthly meeting. The subject of the evening was "Oakland's Need of a Charter." Denison gave a resume of the old charter declaring it inadequate for the requirements of a large city. He briefly outlined the "commissioner plan" as the Galveston charter is known by, also explained the Des Moines charter, which is considered the model city charter of the United States at present.

Des Moines Charter. Mr. Marshall of the Progress Club told of the work of his club in creating a sentiment for a new charter along progressive lines. He explained the initiative and referendum and recall.

Tum Suden, also of the Progress Club, spoke of the Des Moines charter and by request gave the modus operandi of the direct primary and the recall. After each address some time was spent in discussion and asking questions of the speakers. The questions showed an interest in and intelligent grasp of the subject. The Progress Club invited the league to co-operate with them and to name five delegates to represent them in the Progress Club.

The ladies have offered to circulate petition asking that a body of freeholders be elected to frame a new charter. About fifty people were present and altogether it was one of the most successful meetings the league has held.

COMES DOWN IN CLOTHES BASKET

Although her flat in the Rue de Buci, Paris, was to be demolished, Mme. Bertin refused to leave it. She remained for a fortnight while the neighboring walls were being knocked down, and even the removal of her staircase left her unperturbed. It was not until her ceiling fell in that she lowered herself from the fourth story in a clothes basket.

Portraits shown today of babies who are among those to enter THE TRIBUNE beauty contest are:

Claire and Ruth Coakley, ages 1 and 2 years respectively, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Coakley, 1048 Peralta street, Oakland.

William Stanley O'Connell, age 3 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. William O'Connell, 213 Sixth street, Oakland.

Letitia A. Quinn, age 20 months, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Quinn, 892 Thirty-fifth street, Oakland.

Jesse Botsford, age 10 months, child of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Botsford, 573 Eighteenth street, Berkeley.

Beatrice Idella Griffin, age 2 years, 1444 Third street, West Berkeley.

Madeline Ruth Mello, age 3 years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mello, 1111 Sixteenth avenue, East Oakland.

'SOUL-KISS' GIRL TO WED A RICH BREWER

NEW YORK, April 27.—Miss Edna Richardson, a chorus girl in "The Soul Kiss Company," playing at the New York Theater, is to quit the footlights shortly for the altar. She is to marry John S. Conway, president of Bartlett's Brewing Company, a rich Syracuse concern.

Denials concerning the engagement have been banished by Miss Richardson. She said the wedding would surely take place and that the denials were inspired by persons who had taken an undue interest in her affairs.

"I met Mr. Conway about a year ago and it was not long after that we became engaged," she said. "Syracuse is my home town, and I shall be very glad to leave the stage and go back there among my friends."

Asked when she expected the wedding to take place, she replied that she did not know; that Mr. Conway would come to New York in a few days, when the date may be decided upon.

Miss Richardson, who is young and prepossessing, has appeared in several musical comedies. She was first seen in this city in "The Gingerbread Lady" next engagement was in "The Tattered Man," in which she sang small parts. Last summer she was a member of the Van den Berg Opera Company, which gave light opera at the West End Theater.

One Hundred Year Club

Club life in the West represents as wide a variety of activity as in the East. The most unique club of all is the "One Hundred Year Club," organized a few years ago. Its members hope that it may live for 100 years and that they may also live that long. Longevity may be obtained, they believe, by studying and observing the rules of health. The object of this club is to improve and preserve the health and also the mental and physical condition of women. At the weekly meetings there are talks upon health by competent instructors and also physical exercises. With Indian calistoga, a feature of the club is a walk of ten or twelve miles on the fourth Thursday of each month.

Japanese Women Go Shopping In Chicago Department Store

Women a-shopping are the same the world over.

This was certified in Chicago, when Mrs. Nichi Nomura of Yokohama, Japan, and Mrs. Y. Hori and Mrs. K. Umehara of Osaka, dandled their way through the crowded aisles of a State street department store, and marveled at little, purchased a little and bargained a little more. They are the sole feminine trio in a party of over fifty Japanese who were in Chicago on their way around the world. The men folks went to the far-famed stockyards, but the demure little women, having heard much of Chicago's great State street and having seen its bustling vista on post-cards, determined to go shopping instead of visiting the honorable slaughter houses.

"Wonderful! Wonderful!" remarked Mrs. Nomura, as she recalled in the woman's waiting-room after their first toddle for bargains. "To think that the ladies of Chicago can come here every day! It pleases me much to shop. Yiss, it is wonderful."

The pace the three little women set indicated that the frenzied bargain instinct was native to the land of rice and chrysanthemums. It was quite too much for Mrs. Stewart Spaulding, who acted as their guide, or for poor Shiro Tashiro, a student at the University of Chicago, who panted after them as a protector.

Excursion Is Begun Early.

The shopping excursion began at 10:30 a. m. At that time a carriage drew up before the Auditorium Annex, a uniformed attendant bowed low, a park policeman assumed a majestic mien and a camera clicked. Out from a doorway tripped the three dainty shoppers, each arrayed in the latest hint from Tokyo, including a sky-blue kimono, yellow sash and snowy sun-bais. Their costumes were knobby but nobody—not marveled. Birdlike they fitted across the sidewalk, oblivious of a crowd of Michigan avenue saunterers; then the carriage door slammed and it was hot for State street.

"Good morning and thank you," said Mrs. Nomura, beaming on the big man in uniform who opened the carriage on their arrival at the goal, Mrs. Hori and Mrs. Umehara haven't learned "the English," but the gurgled their appreciation.

Start at the Building.

All stared mildly at the imposing structure they were about to enter. A display of gorgeous silks in a window was eyed slyly as they passed through the big glass doors.

"Oh, it's the Japanese! Hey, Gerlie! Here they are!" exclaimed a blonde young woman in a handkerchief booth.

"Gee, I've been waitin' for 'em all morning," responded Gerlie, as she rushed to the side lines. "They're just like the pictures on the fans they give away at a soda fountain, ain't they? Do you think there's much style about 'em?"

"Nice, Nice."

"Nice, nice," declared Mrs. Hori as she fingered a ribbon exhibit. She picked up the expression somewhere east of Denver.

"Umpety-ump centassa-ya-and ma'am," informed the salesperson, who just couldn't get her pencil planted right in her pompadour.

"Mm-hmm," affirmed Mrs. Nomura in a tone which intimated that she was just looking around.

Mrs. Nomura is "there" on the shopping game. Her husband is proprietor of the Samurai Shokai, a magnet for Tokyo bargain hunters, who have been known to buy a whole lot of goods from Mrs. Nomura's business.

"Oo-coh!" exclaimed the three as they approached the cane and umbrella department. Prominently displayed on the counter was a Japanese parasol of the most dazzling white silk, inlaid with a gold design about the handle. It was a shame to be exposed to Chicago atmosphere.

"Like that, madam?" requested the young woman clerk, apparently proud of the exhibit.

"Yiss," said Mrs. Nomura, indicating sweeping approval. She made some tea-package remarks to her companions, each smiled, and timidly examined the prize.

"I heard they were coming and I put it out just to make them feel at home," confided the clerk as they departed.

Women Are at Home.

But they were sufficiently at home. Even a plunging, roaring elevator failed to deprive them of their feeling of ease.

"Ah, very lovely!" uttered Mrs. Nomura as the glory of the millinery department struck her childlike gaze. "I must have a new hat, something very stylish."

So she went before a mirror and tried on some radical spring bonnets. Her companions gurgled delight as each new treasure hove into view.

A group of Chicago shoppers massed about the mirror, hypnotized by the trying-on process. Mr. Tashiro twirled his hat and mopped his brow and looked the carter—just like any Caucasian male in the same horrible fix.

The little shoppers departed from the big store weary but ecstatic. They were anxious to return to see about their laundries. Charles E. Stokes, the Cook's tourist man, long ago resigned to put Mrs. Nomura the solution of the laundry problem en route.

GIRL FOLLOWS HOT ON TRAIL OF HER WANDERING BROTHER

INDIANAPOLIS, April 27.—Once more Miss A. E. Applegate, 18 years old, of Pinksburg, Ill., a few miles from Vincennes, is out on a hunt for her brother Eugene, who is 14, but looks 30. When she arrived at police headquarters here and asked for aid in her search she said it is the second time he has run away. He is a mainly good boy, but he has the Western fever—so bad that he cannot be held.

Last January Eugene, who had saved over $100, disappeared from his home and Miss Applegate started after him, because of the worry to his parents. She learned that he bought a railroad ticket to Indianapolis and then one to St. Louis. Miss Applegate followed, and in St. Louis she ascertained that a boy answering the description of her brother had bought a ticket and taken a train for Fort Worth, Texas.

There trace was lost of the youngster, but, undaunted, Miss Applegate advertised in the Fort Worth papers, showing a picture of the boy. The result was that Eugene was located on a ranch some distance from Fort Worth, where he was captured by his sister and induced to go home.

Precautions were taken at home to prevent the youngster from getting any considerable amount of money.

A few days ago Eugene again disappeared and Miss Applegate again started out to find him. This time the boy was shrewd enough not to buy a ticket. Miss Applegate visited the pawn shops of Vincennes and learned that Eugene had pawned his watch.

All the trainmen were interviewed and she next learned that a boy answering Eugene's description had taken a northbound train.

The conductor of the train said he carried the boy through to Indianapolis, the youngster paying his fare from station to station, evidently with the intention of throwing any one who might follow off the track. The shrewd miss was not outwitted. She believes he is still in Indianapolis, as the money he got for his watch must be exhausted.

She learned from a boy friend of Eugene that her brother boasted that he would make his way to some city and then work until he had saved enough money to pay his fare to the West. She said the boy represents himself as a horseman, and that because of his thorough knowledge of horses he attracts the attention of men when talking. She visited the stockyards in her search.

"What will you do if you find him?" she was asked.

"I can handle him, all right," was her reply. "What I want to see him first, as I can run about as fast as he can. I'll take him back home if I have to put shackles on him."

Miss Applegate said her brother was free from bad habits and was capable of making his way in the world.

"Then why don't you let him go?" asked the sergeant.

"We want him home because he is such a dear boy," she said.

WOMAN STRANGLES COYOTE

PORTLAND, April 27.—Choking a coyote to death after the animal had fastened its teeth in her breast, is the experience of Mrs. T. A. Caldwell.

Mrs. Caldwell, who lives on the M. Wingfield ranch, near Adel, was attracted to the barnyard by a commotion among the poultry. Discovering that a coyote was making a raid on her chickens, Mrs. Caldwell sought to scare away the animal.

She had no idea that the wolf would attack her, but, releasing its hold on a hen the animal turned fiercely on the woman, who, as she started to beat a hasty retreat, tripped and fell.

The coyote was upon her in a moment and fastened its teeth in her breast. Mrs. Caldwell grabbed the beast by the throat, and notwithstanding its desperate efforts to free itself from the woman's clutch, the animal finally sank exhausted, and the brave woman did not release her hold until the animal was dead.

EIGHT OLD WOMEN LIVE IN A CHURCH

There is only one place in England, according to a correspondent, where women actually live in the very church with which they are connected. This is St. Mary's Hospital, Chichester, where the ancient abbey or monastery was long ago partitioned out as a dwelling place for eight old women, who thus receive free residences and pensions, and reside in the very church itself. The "houses" are relegated to the sides of what was formerly the central part of the church, while today this same space serves for a promenade and gossiping spot for the old ladies in their leisure hours, and is much frequented by them. So far back as 1680 there were eight fire-places built from this middle part of the church, and eight rooms, each 11x10 feet, were constructed for the accommodation of the intended inmates. Since that date it may be taken that people have always resided in the church itself and have there passed the evening of their days, though, of course, many changes have been made during the long intervening period. About 1840 the inmates numbered five only, as a regular thing, but then the Rev. Mr. Baker left $5000 to accommodate and provide for three other old ladies. There is a small chapel attached to the old people use, also connected with the ancient abbey and hospital.

TIGHTS Not Necessary

NEW YORK, April 27.—Henrietta Lee Morrison, in a light-fitting gray costume, was radiant in Justice Gerard's part of the Supreme Court, recently, when the jury decided that she was privileged in her refusal to appear on the stage in red tights. The jury awarded to her and her husband a verdict of $4700 against Hurlitz & Seamon for breach of contract.

Justice Gerard, in charging the jury, held that under the contract Hurlitz & Seamon had the right to require Miss Morrison to wear tights, but it was for the jury to decide whether or not she refused to produce the new costume demanded and refused to wear tights. The jury was out less than half an hour.

WHY IS IT WRONG.

Sue-A Southern preacher says it is wrong for a girl to allow a man to kiss her.

Mayme—Of course it's wrong. Good gracious, it wasn't necessary for a Southern preacher to tell us that. I knew the first time a man ever kissed me that it must be wrong—because it was so nice.

A DECEIVER.

"He said he would be asking me to marry him until I consented."

"Wasn't that nice?"

"I thought so, and, of course, I refused him the first time he asked."

"And the second and third and—"

THIN, OVERLOADED FRUIT TREES, SAYS EXPERT

Warns Growers That They Will Have Difficulty in Selling if Product Is Small.

In an interesting report made today, as to what the growing crops will be, the California Canneries Company expert confirms its two opinions which were given at the beginning of March and April, respectively.

The latest report is as follows:

Apples.—Since the last report we have had severe frosts, which have damaged, in some sections, some orchards of apples, and evidently have done some serious damage to the growing fruit crop. No considerable damage, however, was done to the apple crop, and we repeat that the present indications are that it will be the best we have had for several years.

Peaches.—We can repeat the same information that we gave in our last report, the indications being for the largest crop we have had for several years.

Cherries.—On these, indications are for the largest crop in years, also.

Pears.—Would also repeat the information of last two reports in reference to pears.

Tomatoes.—Indications are as outlined in previous reports.

Asparagus.—The park of white asparagus will be shorter than anticipated at the beginning of the season. Pure white asparagus will be very difficult to obtain. Primato white will be in moderate supply. Green will be plentiful. Prices on the canned article will undoubtedly be much lower than last year, possibly 15 per cent. lower. We do not look for any surplus pack.

Resume of All Crops.

Although the fruit crops were not suffering very much for want of rain, we are pleased to state that we are having seasonable rains, which can only be beneficial to growing crops.

As to the prices that will rule, we have no reason to change our views as given.

'THE BONDMAN' AT MACDONOUGH

Wilton Lackaye Will Appear at the Local Playhouse
Tonight.

That real actor, Wilton Lackaye, comes for his engagement in Oakland tonight, and will be seen in the Macdonough Theater for nine performances of his present season's big success, "The Bondman." Hall Caine's dramatization of his well-known novel of that name which ran all last season in London.

When, some weeks ago, Mr. Lackaye acted "The Bondman" in San Francisco, he scored a genuine and pronounced success, and the critics were unanimous in saying that not only had he added to his own already considerable artistic stature by his impersonation of Jason of the North, but that he had brought to the Pacific Coast one of the very best traveling organizations of players ever seen across the bay. When, last summer, Mr. William A. Brady, Mr. Lackaye's manager, obtained from Caine the American and Canadian rights to "The Bondman" for Mr. Lackaye's use, he obtained also the massive production of the play which had been made for Drury Lane Theater, London, where "The Bondman" was first given on September 25, 1905.

There will be matinees on both Thursday and Saturday, and the engagement will close with the performance of Sunday night, May 3.

In our previous reports, we suggested that fruit-growers must take their trees where they are over-loaded; unless they do, the fruit will be small, and they will have great difficulty in finding buyers for their crops, because the dried fruit business being in bad shape, and dealers having been seriously hit during the past season, the speculative feature of the business will be largely eliminated, and unless producers use every effort towards producing better fruit, they will certainly suffer very severely. We cannot too strongly urge growers to take this carefully into consideration.

ARGUMENTS ADVANCED FOR PARKS AND PLAYGROUNDS

Writer Compares Berkeley and San Diego

To the Editor of THE TRIBUNE, sir:

Kindly allow space in your columns for the expression of a few thoughts on a matter of much public interest now being discussed so vigorously by the thinking citizens of Berkeley. Shall Berkeley at this time bond herself for the acquisition of public parks and playgrounds?

As a preface, however, to what I desire to say on the above, allow me, first of all, to express a hope that the good name of this educational center be redeemed by voting the bonds necessary to meet the wants of the school department in buildings and equipment, that the guaranteed constitutional rights of every child be preserved.

Law Safeguards Child's Rights.

The Constitution of California and the laws relating to the establishment and maintenance of schools, express and imply that this shall be done; and any neglect in thus providing ample facilities to adequately meet this requirement would certainly brand our city as a back number; and, justly, remove from her, her prerogative as an educational center. Let every citizen, therefore, do his duty in favor of the boys and girls of Berkeley, on the 19th of May, by polling a full vote.

Parks and Playgrounds.

But my theme is parks and playgrounds and to this I return.

It was my pleasure to listen to the discussion last Monday evening in the Chamber of Commerce by a number of representative citizens. All that was advocated was reasonable—the school bonds, allowing for what the constitution and laws already provide; the incinerator, a sanitary necessity; the playgrounds, providing for a balanced physical development of the whole boy; and the parks for the cultivation of the beautiful in nature and art, as well as a place for recreation and enjoyment.

Now, we ask, with all sobriety, where is the man or woman in Berkeley who would not want all of these, provided they can be secured for prices that are reasonable and in a way that meets the approval of the people; and, provided further, that the total bonded indebtedness thus incurred will not be unreasonable?

Posterity to Help

Pay off Bonds.

When considering this question of bonded indebtedness, the reader should remember that these bonds may run for many years, thus requiring the future generations to help pay the debt which we incur. This is right; for future generations are beneficiaries of the investments of the present. Fifty or a hundred years from now the people will rise up and call us blessed for thus providing for their comfort when the greatness of the population will make life more burdensome, as it is now in the great centers of population.

What a happy thing it would have been if New York, while land was cheap, had made such provisions as those we are now advocating. She would not now be put to the necessity of purchasing here and there a block of a block of ground at fabulous prices for a breathing space for her crowded city. And, further, would not be forced to the necessity of improvising roof gardens as playgrounds.

Public Grounds Necessities.

Public playgrounds and parks may not be looked upon as necessities, but in reality they are; for the development of the highest citizenship and the strongest character, surely, requires opportunities for the cultivation of the aesthetic side. "Is not life more than meat and the body than raiment?"

But to the man or woman who is so much absorbed in the race for gold, do not readily acquiesce in these views, and are apt to look upon bonds and taxes for such "luxuries" as uncalled for. "Let the future inhabitants take care of themselves," I heard a well-meaning man recently say.

Yet in justice to the average American citizen, be it said, that he is open to conviction; and, when once "shown," will do his part. So I trust the voters of Berkeley, when convinced, will do their part.

Few Ideal Sites.

Now, it is said by those who are conversant with eligible park sites in and about Berkeley, that already few places remain of any considerable size, places, at least, that have the natural qualities to make a park. The only such place that seems to possess all the characteristics of a perfect site is "The Old Indian Burying Ground," situated north of the city. If this be true, then the question of its purchase at this time becomes a vital one.

About a year ago the writer wandered into this place by chance and was convinced at that time of its desirability for park purposes. No one, in fact, could visit this spot without being so impressed. President Wheeler, in his remarks, characterized it as a natural site, beautiful park already without anything further to be done, because nature has already done so much. It is, also, easily accessible, when once a car line extends to it.

Lesson From Other Cities.

The desirability of suitable parks and playgrounds being thus established may it not be well to look about us and see what lessons we can learn from other places in our State? It is my desire to refer to what has been and is now being accomplished in but one of these places—a city of the size of our own.

It has been my good fortune to reside, until a year ago, in a beautiful city in the southern part of this great State—a State so noted for its many charming localities, glorious for situation. This southern city resembles Berkeley in many respects, located about the same and overlooking a fine bay and harbor, the hills high and facing toward the south and west, with wonderful views of the bay and the distant ocean. Just such as Berkeley affords, only hazier, dreamy and milder, at least for more days in the year. This city is San Diego.

1400-Acre Park in San Diego.

But it is not so much of the city that I wish to write, nor of its "summer sea," nor its Coronado, but rather of its marvelous park site, for they are the possessors of 1400 acres, that is now almost surrounded by beautiful homes. This splendid tract is, as far as I know, the largest park site west of the Mississippi and has come to be the pride of San Diego and should be of the whole State of California; for while there is not much natural shrubbery or rock-formation as in the Berkeley proposed site, yet its area is so great, its canons so deep and diversified, its mesa spots so numerous, that it at once becomes a striking asset to that richly endowed place.

Obtained Park in Early Days.

The town of San Diego fell heir to this remarkable tract of land some time in the 30's, and during the slow and sleepy growth of the place, was not appreciated by the inhabitants, except a few of those worthies that every community possesses—men who can read the future from the pages of the present. So much was this so, that until about a decade ago there was an ever-recurring agitation, to in some way dispose of a large part of this "unproductive barren waste" that by so doing there would still be plenty of land left, and with the proceeds this remainder could be improved. If I mistake not, public meetings were called on a few occasions. At least it was considered in council meetings—the advisability of disposing of a part of it.

"Barren Waste" Improved.

However, it was pointed out that legal obstacles would be in the way, that the Legislature would have to take action, so these movements came to naught. In the meantime the city grew into larger proportions and about ten years ago one or two of the public spirited citizens of that smaller class who can see a little beyond the present, unknown to any except the park commissioners, quietly planned to improve a portion of this "barren waste." These public spirited men took a wise plan. They secured the services of one of the foremost landscape gardeners in the world—Parsons of New York City. This gentleman went to San Diego at sundry times, advised and had executed a survey of this "barren waste" and in three draw plans for the gradual improvement of the greater park, just as the University of California secured plans for "The Greater University."

Valuable Asset Now.

A century or more may pass before all of this magnificent land is improved, but whatever is done hereafter will be done systematically and after a wise model.

The first important improvement, due to the generosity, largely, of one man, was that of the construction of boulevards, around and through the park grounds, thus opening it up to the public. Then followed the planting of several acres lying next to the built-up portion of the city. Public gatherings in which all the school children, as a body, took part—the people were aroused and smoke to dust the advocates of the noble inheritance, which today no one would think of disposing of, even a foot of it. The "barren waste" has become the proudest asset of their possessions.

Beautiful Homes.

In the last few years land contiguous to this park, on all sides, has grown astonishing values, and beautiful homes are being erected about its borders. The popularity of San Diego as a place for homes is enhanced very greatly by the presence of this glorious park, which will always stand as a place for recreation and the culture of the beautiful in nature and art.

It will be a privilege for the city and for persons of private means to contribute to its development as the years go by. Every citizen of California should be gratified at what this southern city has accomplished in its efforts to preserve for itself, and incidentally for all who may ever visit its sunny shores, this beautiful tract of land that cannot be marred by the rude hand of commerce, but will stand forever as a monument to those who have preserved and developed it.

Lesson for Berkeley.

Now, it seems to me, there is a lesson in this for Berkeley. Already it may be too late to secure, on so large a scale as San Diego, all that the weary generations to come should have for their health and enjoyment. That much may not be needed, but a reasonable body of land should be secured now as the opportunity offers, before it becomes impossible either from the advance in price or from the fact that it is built upon.

It is true that we have the noble University grounds; but in time the great number of buildings necessary and the large attendance will keep the public from more than a passing enjoyment. The lament of President Wheeler, that the university should have the land, will never be realized. The university grounds must then be restricted, in a great measure, to what was originally intended—educational purposes.

No Burden in Debt.

Now, it seems to me that in providing playgrounds and parks the bonded indebtedness can scarcely be looked upon as a burden. The future population is pledged to assist in the discharge of the debt; and the rise in real estate values directly due to increase in population make such places valuable assets.

Berkeley, the most charming of all coastal cities, should be the best of everything when it can be shown that there is no serious sacrifice in obtaining it.

F. P. DAVIDSON.

He Got What He Needed.

"Nine years ago I looked up at my time he came," said Mr. C. Farthing of Mill Creek, Ind. Ter. "I was so run down that life hung on a very slender thread. It was then my druggist recommended Electric Bitters. I bought a bottle and I got what I needed. I had one foot in the grave, but Electric Bitters put it back on the turf again, and I've been well ever since." Sold under guarantee at Os-good Bros' Drug Stores, 50c.

VOCALISTS MAKE DEBUT ON STAGE

GRACE CARROLL ENGLUND, AT THE BELL.

Well-Known Musicians Open Engagement in Vaudeville.

Four Oakland vocalists, Miss Marie Byrd, soprano; Miss Grace Carroll Englund, contralto; C. Ernest Edwards, tenor; and Adalbert Engel, bass, made their debut in vaudeville at the Bell Theater this afternoon, presenting, with the assistance of James' Dream, "The Artist's Dream." The quartet, which comprises the Colonial Quartet, and their appearance at the Bell promises to be a social, as well as a dramatic triumph.

The members of the quartet are well-known in musical circles about the bay and their many friends are planning to make their engagement at the Bell a social and musical event. Miss Englund appears in the sketch as "Lily Gamble." She is a sister of Mrs. Carroll-Nicholson, who has long been prominent in Oakland circles, and she has taken part in many contests and sung in church choirs on both sides of the bay. Miss Byrd is also well known as a choir soloist and she has hosts of friends in this city.

Adalbert Engel has for the last three years been bass-baritone in the choir of St. Francis de Sales Church. He is a member of several prominent German singing societies of Oakland and San Francisco and has taken part in the line of concert work. Ernest Edwards, the fourth Oaklander in the quartet, has the role of "Sir Francis." He has a tenor voice that has often been heard in concerts and recitals about the bay.

Yachtsmen Enjoy Grand Opening

Yachtsmen had a great day yesterday when the Corinthian and San Francisco Yacht Clubs made an auspicious opening of the season. The clubs held their opening cruise in squadron. Commodore Phillips headed the fleet of the San Francisco Yacht Club in his sloop, Monsoon. Commodore Stone was at the head of the Corinthians in his flagship, Presto. The San Francisco boats went under way at 11:00 a. m., and the Corinthians left their moorings at Tiburon about the same time. Both headed for the same way and they came together in the channel, where the wind was blowing briskly. They presented a very pretty sight in the bay.

The day was ideal for the sport. A good breeze was blowing in the channel and the amateur tars got their first racing of the season. Along the water front the wind was rather light, but there was always enough to make the sailing interesting. The yacht returned to their respective moorings without difficulty late in the afternoon. Among the yachts which accompanied the flagship Monsoon of the San Francisco Yacht Club were the following: Curlew, Neva, White Heather, Queen, Martha, Surprise and Challenger. Among the Corinthian fleet were the following: The Bay, The Presto, Freda, Kathleen, Edna, Nixie, Yankee, May, Mignon, Cupid, Belle, Michael, Harpoon, Edith, Vixen, Discovery and Olga.

Cricket Practice Draws Big Crowd

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—There were large turnouts of cricketers at both yesterday and today's practice games. The first game was played at Alameda. Saunders' side won an easy victory from an eleven captained by Willing, making 89 runs to their opponents' 44.

In order to give all the participants a chance at the wickets it was arranged that any batsman scoring 25 runs should retire at that figure. Saunders, and Wheatley, both on the same team, left their innings incomplete by virtue of reaching the figure.

Wheatley made some exceptionally fine strokes and is evidently in grand fettle for the season. Smith, one of the new Berkeley players who will assist the San Francisco team this year, made 20 in pretty style and will be hard to get out in the penultimate series.

The Alamedans were best represented at the grounds, no fewer than twenty of their members turning out to try for the team next week, and the selection committee has no easy task in picking the eleven for next Sunday against the Pacifics.

EDDIE GRANEY'S WIFE IS CALLED BY DEATH

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—After an illness of five years, following an accident while riding on horseback in Golden Gate Park in 1902, Mrs. Eva Graney, wife of Eddie Graney, noted for his connection with prize fights, died yesterday morning at her residence, 1578 McAllister street.

Mrs. Graney was 33 years old. She was an attractive woman and a fine musician. The fall in Golden Gate Park was caused by a runaway horse colliding with the horse on which Mrs. Graney was riding. Her horse was killed and Mrs. Graney had three ribs broken. Consumption set in, and that, complicated with neuritis, was the cause of her death.

The funeral will be held Tuesday forenoon from Holy Cross Church, Eddy street, between Divisadero and Scott.

Two Burglars Break Into Place; Get Liquor Only.

(Special to The Tribune.)
SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—Two burglars who evidently expected to get considerable booty in reward for their efforts, broke into the saloon of Vincent Lukia at Jones and O'Farrell streets this morning and ransacked the place.

Entrance was effected by a side door and the intruders took with them a safe cracking outfit. They missed their guess, however, as Lukia is in the habit of depositing his money in a safe deposit vault. A quantity of whiskey, cigars and tobacco were carried off.

S.S.S. FOR RHEUMATISM

Rheumatism is caused by an excess of uric acid in the blood, brought about by the accumulation in the system of refuse matter which the natural avenues of bodily waste have failed to carry off. This waste or refuse matter ferments and sours and generates uric acid which is absorbed into the blood and distributed to all parts of the body, and Rheumatism, with its torturing pains and aches, inflammation and other disagreeable symptoms, gets possession of the system. The aches and pains may be relieved and the inflammation temporarily reduced by the application of a good plaster, penetrating liniment or some other simple home remedy, but the disease can never be cured while the blood remains saturated with the irritating, pain-producing uric acid poison. The cause should be driven from the blood before the trouble reaches the chronic or helpless stage. S. S. S., a purely vegetable remedy, cures Rheumatism by thoroughly cleansing the blood of every particle of the uric acid poison, and making this vital fluid pure, fresh and health-sustaining. It filters out from the circulation the remotest particle of the poison, and when S. S. S. has renovated the blood, Rheumatism is thoroughly and permanently cured. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice free.

POLICE NOW TRYING TO DETERMINE WHAT KIND OF EXPLOSIVE DESTROYED CAGE

Authorities differ as to method used in attempt to put crusher on prosecution's star witness.

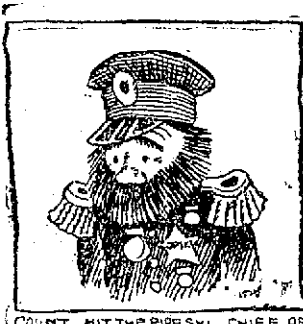

BOMB MADE OUT OF GOAT'S EGG, WHICH WAS OVER RIPPED, AND NOT PROPERLY FUMIGATED. MAY BECOME A VERY POWERFUL AND DANGEROUS EXPLOSIVE. CIGERO MUTT BELIEVES THAT A BOMB OF THIS KIND MAY HAVE BEEN ACCIDENTALLY DISCHARGED BY THE WEATHER.

LIFE SIZE PHOTO OF A GOAT'S EGG, WHICH WAS OVER RIPPED, AND NOT PROPERLY FUMIGATED. MAY BECOME A VERY POWERFUL AND DANGEROUS EXPLOSIVE. CIGERO MUTT BELIEVES THAT A BOMB OF THIS KIND MAY HAVE BEEN ACCIDENTALLY DISCHARGED BY THE WEATHER.

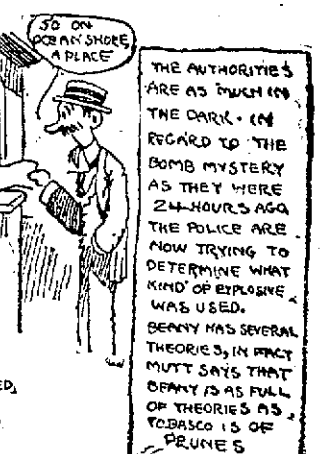

THE DISASTER WAS CAUSED BY AN EXPLOSION OF GAS, HE SAID. IT IS VERY LIKELY THAT THE EXPLOSION WAS CAUSED BY LEAKING GAS AS I AM INFORMED THAT DEANY MADE SEVERAL LONG TALKS TO BABY JACK AND UNBOWLED CONVERSABLE OF SAID STUFF ON EACH OCCASION.

COUNT HIT THE PIPE, CHIEF OF THE RUSSIAN SECRET SERVICE, AND BOMB EXPLODED WHEN CABLED FOR HIS BAPTISM. WHEN ALLOWED TO GO OUT TO COAST CRACKS AND BECOMES ONE OF THE MOST POWERFUL OF EXPLOSIVES. AFTER EXAMINING PHOTOS OF THE WRECKAGE, I AM CONVINCED THAT THIS TYPE OF COMPOSITION DID THE WORK.

DETECTIVE TOBACCO DENIED THE RUMOR THAT THE EXPLOSION WAS CAUSED BY THE SHAPING OF CIGARETTES RUBBER. LEG. HE SAID: "THAT ASSURD RUMOR IS PROVED FALSE BY THE FACT THAT PICKLES, LEG. ALTHOUGH SOMEWHAT ELONGATED, IS STILL ATTACHED TO HIS BODY. IT WOULD TAKE A WEEK TO SNAP IT, WHILE WE HAVE ONLY GIVEN IT A STENDY PULL."

THE AUTHORITIES ARE AS MUCH IN THE DARK. IN REGARD TO THE BOMB MYSTERY AS THEY WERE 24 HOURS AGO. THE POLICE ARE NOW TRYING TO DETERMINE WHAT KIND OF EXPLOSIVE WAS USED. DEANY HAS SEVERAL THEORIES, IN FACT MUTT SAYS THAT DEANY IS AS FULL OF THEORIES AS A PRUNE.

FALLING CHIMNEY KILLS 1; HURTS 2

Another Serious Accident in Public School—Young Child Is Crushed to Death.

BUFFALO, N. Y., April 27.—While a party of school children were playing in the yard of public school No. 35, on Swan street today, a tall chimney on an adjoining building was blown over by a heavy gust of wind. William Phiel, 14 years of age, was caught under the debris and crushed to death. Hugh Doherty, aged 16 years, received a fractured skull and Leroy Hodges, aged 14 years, sustained many lacerations and is internally injured. Several others received minor cuts and bruises.

WEARY OF LIFE, GIRL COMMITS SUICIDE

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—Weary of life at 18, beautiful Alma Harrison swallowed a mixture of cyanide of potassium and ammonia in her home at 42 Steiner street, yesterday, and died a short time afterward. Dr. L. J. Weller, who was called in to treat her, was in a precarious condition for some time afterward because of his devotion to his duty. He was puzzled as to what poison the girl had taken when he called, and the only way to find out was to taste the deadly mixture. A small portion of it got into his throat, burning him terribly, and only heroic measures saved him from death.

No cause is known for the girl's desperate act, though a letter she left indicates that she had frequently contemplated suicide. It is believed that she brooded over the end of Nora May French, the young poetess who committed suicide at Carmel, using the same poison.

Beauty's Suicide a Mystery.—Petaluma: Although Coroner Blackburn held an inquest into the death of Mrs. Belle Hextine, who was one of the most popular society women of Petaluma, the suicide is still shrouded in mystery. Members of the family are doing their best to keep the facts from the public.

Impure blood runs you down—makes you an easy victim for organic diseases. Burdock Blood Purifier purifies the blood—cures the cause—builds you up.

How Glasses Stay On

You have seen some people make nose glasses stay on readily, and you have seen others constantly annoyed by their falling lenses. In some cases the fault is that of the nose itself; it is of a shape unsuitable to the wearing of eye-glasses. In other cases, and they are in the majority, the fault is that of the optician, who, because of inexperience or a limited stock, is unable to give you the mounting best suited to your facial contour. If your glasses fall off ask our optician to show you the new style mountings, and especially the Radio Invisible Eye-Glass, that is so neat as to be almost invisible and so constructed that it will stay on almost any nose. See for yourself if the Radio may not be just the very thing you ought to have.

PARIS, April 27.—A solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated this morning at the Church of St. Philippe for the late Duc de Chaulnes, who died suddenly from heart disease Thursday night. The canopy over the bier, which was banked with flowers, bore the arms of the de Chaulnes family.

The widow of the dead Duc, who is a daughter of Theodore P. Shonts of New York, was accompanied to the church by the Duc and Duchess d'Uzes, the Duc and Duchess de Luyne, the Duc and Duchess Neaillie, Marquis Horschel, Mrs. Drake and other relatives. The Duchess de Chaulnes appeared to be much broken but she bravely withstood the trying French ordeal of receiving condolences after the ceremony.

The prominent members of the French aristocracy and the American colony were present at the mass, including Baron and Baroness de Graffenre, the Duc and Duchess de Rochefort, General Devaren, the Marquis de Sersalons, Count de Lestang, Count Devogus, Count Boni de Castellane, Ambassador and Mrs. White and Consul General and Mrs. Mason. Pain from indigestion, dyspepsia, and too hearty eating, is relieved at once by taking one of Carter's Little Liver Pills immediately after dinner. Don't forget this.
